NEW QUEER PHOTOGRAPHY

Focus on the margins. That is the mantra of Benjamin Wolberg's New Queer Photography, an eye-catching exploration of gender, sexuality and forbidden desire. The must-have book spotlights the work of well-known and up-and-coming photographers, from Matt Lambert's lust-filled shoots, to Robin Hammond's Where Love is Illegal series, featuring portraits of LGBTQ+ people from countries where same-sex relations are criminalised. Julia Gunther's project Rainbow Girls shines bright, too, zooming in on a Miss Lesbian competition held in one of Cape Town's townships. Out now. Price: 58€.
